

What Seest Thou, Jeremiah?

599 BC – After Jehoiachin. Zedekiah's first year.

QUESTIONS FOR CHAPTER 29, 24:

1. How does Jeremiah give his prophecy and to whom? (vs. 1)
2. When does he give it, and by whose hand is it sent? (vs. 2-3)
3. What instructions were given to those who were carried away? (vs. 4-7)
4. What did those who claimed to be prophets in their midst do wrong? (vs. 8-9)
5. After 70 years, what will God cause to happen? (vs. 10)
6. What did God desire for them? (vs. 11)
7. When could God be found to help them? (vs. 12-13)
8. Who does he talk about next? (vs. 16)
9. What does he compare those left in Jerusalem under Zedekiah to? (vs. 17)
10. Where would they be tossed to and fro? (vs. 18) Why? (vs. 19)
11. Who does God name as false prophets? (vs 21) What will happen to them?
12. How would their names be used? (vs. 22)
13. Who sent out letters, and to whom? (vs. 24-25)
14. What did he falsely claim? (vs. 26)
15. What did he ask concerning Jeremiah in his letter? (vs 27) What was his accusation?
16. How did he regard Jeremiah's letter to his fellow captives? (vs. 28)
17. Who read this letter, and how did God punish him? (vs. 29-32)
18. What did God show Jeremiah, and when? (ch. 24:1)
19. What was in each basket? (vs. 2-3)
20. What was the good basket compared to? What would God do for the good people? (vs. 4-7)
21. What was the bad basket compared to? What would God do to the bad? (vs. 8-10)
22. Who were represented by the good figs, and the bad? (vs. 5, 8)