

QUESTIONS FOR HEBREWS TWELVE:

1. By what are we “compassed about,” or “surrounded?” (vs. 1)
2. Where do we read about them?
3. What should we do in the light of what these have done? (vs. 1)
4. Who is our perfect example of patience? (vs. 2)
5. What did he endure and what was the result? (vs. 2)
6. The purpose of these exhortations is what? (vs. 3)
7. What had these Hebrew brethren not done yet? (vs. 4)
8. What had they forgotten? (vs. 5)
9. In what regard did God hold them? (vs. 5-7)
10. Some of their suffering was considered what? (vs. 8)
11. How did we regard our fathers who chastened us? (vs. 9)
12. Why did they chasten us? (vs. 10)
13. What is the fruit of chastening? (vs. 11)
14. What was their attitude to be when chastened? (vs. 12-13)
15. What 2 things are we to pursue, and why? (vs. 14)
16. Who is given as an example of being profane - what was the tragedy of his life? (vs. 16-17)
17. In Christ, what have we NOT come to? (vs. 18)
18. What event is referred to in the description of this place? (vs. 18-21)
19. How is the place described that we HAVE come to in Christ? (vs. 22-24)
20. What is this?
21. What are we not to do? (vs. 25) Why not?
22. What happened to that which was shaken? (vs. 27) What is that?
23. What happened to that which was not shaken? (vs. 27)
24. What have we received in Christ? (vs. 28)
25. With what disposition are we to offer our service? (vs. 28-29)

MEMORY WORK:

Heb. 12:1-2; 4-5; 7; 9-11; 14; 22-24; 28-29